About Barnabas Aid

Barnabas Aid is an international aid agency that supports Christian communities, churches and individuals around the world who face persecution and discrimination because of their faith.

1. We channel money, dry foodstuffs, medical and other aid from Christians through Christians to Christians. Donations from individuals and churches are forwarded to local ministries and Christian organizations in contexts of poverty, pressure and persecution to bring about practical and spiritual transformation in the lives of suffering believers.

2. We encourage prayer for the persecuted Church by providing comprehensive prayer materials. We believe in the power of prayer to change people's lives and circumstances, either through grace to endure or through deliverance from suffering.

3. We believe the clear Biblical teaching that Christians should treat all people (of all religions and none) with love and compassion – even those who seek to persecute them. We carry out our vision and purpose accordingly, but we will not compromise what we believe the Word of God teaches.

"As we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers."
Galatians 6:10, (NIV, emphasis added)

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Thank you for your faithful and prayerful support for the work of Barnabas Aid. We never cease to be grateful for the care and generosity of our supporters.

In this booklet you can find out how you can help our suffering and persecuted brothers and sisters by giving a gift. You can provide food, water, education, job opportunities and spiritual strength for believers in lands of poverty and desperate need.

Their need remains undiminished. Natural disasters and weather extremes, food scarcity, disease and war affect our brothers and sisters just as they affect all people. On top of this, believers suffer worsening anti-Christian persecution.

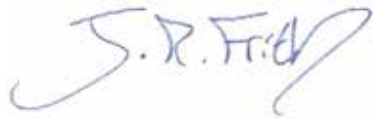

We know from the Bible that this will continue until our Lord returns (see Matthew 24:6-11). But we also know that we are called to act in response:

"Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers." – Galatians 6:10

These suggested gifts could make a thoughtful alternative birthday or Christmas present. We can also supply an attractive gift card to send to the person on whose behalf you have made the donation. For details of the different gift cards available, see page iv in the center of this booklet.

Regular giving in particular allows us to plan strategically, respond quickly to urgent situations, and also helps to keep our administrative costs low. Our regular donations form can be found on page iii.

Yours Sincerely in Christ,

JEREMY FRITH

Head of Operations (USA)

food.gives

“The generous will themselves be blessed, for they share their food with the poor.” – Proverbs 22:9

“We are so grateful to God for providing us with food through the generosity of Barnabas. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts!”

These are the words of Grace, whose family of seven was among the 1,008 Fijian families who received lentils, chickpeas, flour and rice in 2024 through food.gives.

In 2024, the food.gives project has delivered more than 5.2 million servings of food to our hungry brothers and sisters around the world.

food.gives functions as an international food bank, shipping food donated by Christians, through Christians, to Christians.

Our project partner in Zimbabwe described food.gives aid as “nothing short of life-saving.”

Zimbabwe declared a state of disaster on April 3, 2024, owing to worsening drought, which has caused severe levels of food insecurity. Our supporters donated 23.5 tons of lentils that provided 470,000 servings to more than 11,600 people.

In 2024, food.gives also continued to send regular shipments of food, medical aid, clothes and more to our brothers and sisters in Ukraine.

The importance of our continued assistance was highlighted with our most recent aid shipment. “We are now left only with Barnabas’ help,” said our project partner, “and we are so thankful because you stay close to us.”

According to the World Food Program, as many as 309 million people are currently facing chronic hunger, in 71 different countries. Many of these are our brothers and sisters. Please consider donating to this project so that the vital work of food.gives can continue.

Food aid sent to Fiji provided relief to Christians who struggle with profound economic hardship.

Medical Needs

A Christian in Lebanon receives Barnabas-funded medication.

“LORD my God, I called to you for help, and you healed me.”
– Psalm 30:2

Many Christians live in uncertain or perilous circumstances, lacking access to medical resources and medicines so readily available in the West. Barnabas helps to meet their needs by funding medical facilities, equipment and medicines.

In recent years we have supported projects for Christians in places such as India, Pakistan, Nigeria, South Sudan, Haiti and countries in Central Asia.

The economic crisis in Lebanon has caused the price of medicines to rise so high that many impoverished Christians are rationing what little medication they have to make it last longer. Barnabas has been helping the chronically ill by providing the medication they need each month.

“Your support makes a big difference not only by providing medication, but by giving people the assurance that they are not forgotten,” said our project partner.

$6 could provide a pack of crepe bandages for a medical backpack in Nigeria.

$11 could provide a trauma pad in Nigeria.

$12 could provide a Christian family with a month of much-needed medication in Lebanon.

$24 could provide a blood pressure monitoring machine in Nigeria.

Water

Christian communities in West African countries are among those who have been blessed by the provision of clean water, funded by Barnabas.

“He split the rocks in the wilderness and gave them water as abundant as the seas; he brought streams out of a rocky crag and made water flow down like rivers.” – Psalm 78:15-16

Water is essential for life and health, yet many Christians have limited or no access to a supply of clean water for drinking, cooking and washing.

Christians are sometimes denied access to water because of their faith. Converts who have left the majority religion of their village or region are at particular risk.

As well as this, Christian women and girls often have to walk long distances to fetch supplies, making them vulnerable to harassment or attack.

Believers are also among those who suffer the loss of clean drinking water after natural disasters such as floods and earthquakes.

In recent years Barnabas Aid has funded water projects in countries such as Bangladesh, Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Chad, Pakistan and Sri Lanka. We also send bottled water or water-purifying tablets for areas afflicted by natural disasters.

$24 could fund four hours of drilling of a borehole in a West African country.

$120 could pay for a hand pump in a South Asian country.

$1,178 could provide clean drinking water for a West African village (approx. 5,000 people).

Victims of Violence

“No longer will violence be heard in your land, nor ruin or destruction within your borders, but you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.”
– Isaiah 60:18

In many countries our brothers and sisters face persistent anti-Christian violence. Barnabas responds by reaching those affected by this violence and supplying vital aid.

There is no sign of an end to the violence towards Christians in Northern and Middle Belt Nigeria. Thousands have been killed. Families are forced to flee from attacks, often taking only what they can carry.

Through our project partners we have provided these communities with food and other essentials – sleeping mats, blankets and mosquito nets, household items to replace those lost or destroyed when their homes were burned down.

Through training sessions and the provision of medical backpacks, volunteer first responders can provide life-saving care for the injured.

We supply educational resources for displaced children who have lost their teachers in the violence or been forced to flee far from their schools.

In the Christian area of Jaranwala, Pakistan, at least 24 churches and several dozen smaller chapels were set on fire, and the homes of more than 100 believers were burned, looted or vandalized by an Islamist mob in 2023. We delivered food and practical aid to around 1,000 individuals worst affected by the devastation.

A campaign of bombing and artillery attacks by the military against Christian-majority areas in parts of Myanmar has led to thousands being forced from their homes and land. Our partners in Myanmar have crossed unforgiving terrain to reach the displaced with essential supplies, including sleeping mats and blankets, medicine and food parcels.

Your gift of:

$4 could provide a roofing sheet for a Christian family made homeless in Nigeria.

$18 could provide two weeks of food for a Pakistani Christian family whose lives have been disrupted by anti-Christian violence.

$24 could provide a family food parcel for displaced Christians in Myanmar containing rice, noodles, canned fish, vegetables, cooking oil.

Barnabas-funded school-books and pencils are distributed among families displaced by anti-Christian violence in Nigeria.

Pastors and Evangelists

A Barnabas-supported pastor baptizes a believer in a remote mountain village in a South-East Asian country.

“Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers.” – Ephesians 4:11

The gifts and prayers of Barnabas donors support pastors and evangelists in their mission to grow God’s Church in places of persecution and oppression around the world.

Suffering Christians are strengthened in their love and faith for Jesus, and new converts are taught and disciplined in the ways of the Lord.

Barnabas supports 40 church planters on Java, Indonesia’s most populous island. Extremists among the Muslim-majority population, as well as followers of traditional religious practices, often stir up hostility towards marginalized Christian converts and pastors.

In Vietnam, Barnabas supports a Bible team of six who visit persecuted ethnic Hmong Christians in around 60 isolated mountain villages. The team, headed by a pastor, helps believers to stand firm in their faith with Bible teaching and prayer, and disciplines church leaders.

$5.50 could pay one month’s phone bill for a pastor in Java, to help them provide spiritual counsel to believers.

$36 could support an evangelist or pastor sharing the Gospel with those who need it.

$108 could pay for one month’s fuel for a Vietnamese pastor’s motorcycle to enable him to visit remote mountain villages.

Bibles and Scriptures

"I am the happiest woman in the world," declares "Mima", on receiving her Bible after a wait of 49 years.

"All your words are true; all your righteous laws are eternal."
– Psalm 119:160

"After 49 years of praying, God has amazingly answered my prayers. Praise the Lord!" exclaimed "Mima", a 64-year-old Karen Christian living in a remote village in Myanmar on receiving the precious gift of a Bible for the very first time.

"Reading the words of God is my favorite thing in life," she added.

Thanks to supporters' generosity, Barnabas has funded the transportation of 94,000 Bibles to Christians in Myanmar, who continue to endure violent persecution from the country's military. More than half the Bibles were successfully distributed in early 2024, with the remainder ongoing at the time of writing. Many recipients had prayed for decades for their own copy of the Bible.

Barnabas has also funded 100 Bibles in Kiswahili for a church on the Tanzanian archipelago of Zanzibar. These will bless churchgoers and help train new pastors in a region where Christians are a tiny and persecuted minority, and few believers or even church leaders have a Bible to call their own.

$6.50 could provide a Bible to encourage and strengthen the faith of a Christian living under pressure and persecution.

$13 could pay the transport costs for a box of 40 Bibles to Myanmar.

$65 could pay the transport costs for 200 Bibles to Myanmar.

Converts to Christianity

Barnabas supports Ugandan ministries that provide converts with shelter, discipleship training, trauma counseling and vocational training, including this soap-making initiative.

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: the old has gone, the new is here!” – 2 Corinthians 5:17

Converts to Christianity from other religions are often rejected by their families, former friends, and communities. They may face ongoing hostility and even violence.

“Marat”, a Kyrgyz Christian convert from Islam, was told by his then best friend, “If I had a gun, I would be the first to shoot you because you believe in Jesus Christ.”

Barnabas provided food parcels for 150 impoverished convert families (about 700 individuals) including Marat and his family living in a remote mountainous region of Kyrgyzstan. The parcels sustained them for three months.

Barnabas has funded vocational training in soap-making for 20 converts in Uganda. While Uganda is 80% Christian, converts are often dismissed from Muslim-owned businesses. The training enables the new believers to get jobs in a church-owned soap-making facility.

$24 could provide vocational training for one Ugandan convert for up to three months.

$26.50 could pay for a food parcel for a convert family for a month in Central Asia.

$170 could provide enough coal for a convert Christian family in Kyrgyzstan to keep them warm in the winter.

Yes, I would like to give a gift of love and hope to suffering Christians.

Our Mission Statement

The mission of Barnabas Aid is to support Christians where they are in a minority and suffer discrimination, oppression and persecution as a consequence of their faith. Our goal is to strengthen Christian individuals, churches and their communities by providing material and spiritual support in response to needs identified by local Christian leaders.

We do this by making their needs known to Christians around the world, and encouraging prayer, advocacy and financial giving in support of these brothers and sisters in Christ, working with existing local Christian organizations.

Barnabas Aid channels this flow from donors to the needy recipients with minimum overheads. All gifts are monitored to ensure they are used in line with the stated need.

In accordance with Biblical teaching, we believe that Christians should treat all people of all faiths with love and compassion, even those who persecute them.

Enhancing Trust

Poverty Relief

An Iraqi Christian man receives a Barnabas-funded food parcel.

“Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the LORD.” – Proverbs 19:17

Many Christians live in poverty, often as a result of discrimination and marginalization because of their love for Christ.

Large numbers of Iraqi Christians remain displaced in Iraqi Kurdistan, to which they fled in 2014 to escape Islamic State (IS, ISIS, ISIL, Daesh). Many of them are impoverished, having left behind all they owned in their historic homelands.

“Sometimes we have to borrow money to cover our rent and food. This month we won’t need to,” said one believer after Barnabas provided food parcels for more than 2,000 poor Iraqi Christian families.

In Pakistan, Barnabas has freed 2,023 Christian brick kiln families from the yoke of bonded labor. During times of family crisis (for example, a medical emergency) underpaid brick kiln laborers are forced to borrow from their employers, which leaves them trapped in debt. Your donations have paid their debts and given them hope of a better future.

$9.50 could buy 44 lbs. of unmilled rice from Christian farmers in South-East Asia to mill and give to needy Christians.

$24 could provide a poor Christian family in Iraqi Kurdistan with a food parcel for one month.

$562 could pay in full a debt binding a Pakistani Christian family to a brick kiln.

Disaster Relief

“The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears them; he delivers them from all their troubles.” – Psalm 34:17

“When the relief material from our Christian brothers and sisters arrived, it was like a miracle.”

These are the words of Samana, a young mother in Nepal whose home was destroyed in a 5.6 magnitude earthquake, which left thousands homeless. More than 150 were killed.

With donations from our supporters, Barnabas-funded food parcels containing rice, pulses, and cooking oil were distributed to 680 families afflicted by the disaster. We also provided blankets to 380 households and warm clothes for 177 children.

In May 2024, record floods in Brazil killed more than 170 people and displaced half a million. Many of these were our Christian brothers and sisters.

Barnabas provided aid including food, cleaning kits, clothes, furniture and household appliances. These provided relief in the immediate aftermath of the flooding, and helped our Christian family rebuild.

Mudslides caused by flash flooding in Kenya claimed many lives, as well as destroying homes and crops. Our Kenyan brothers and sisters, who have struggled with food insecurity for many years, were left without both food and shelter.

We provided emergency assistance of maize flour, cooking oil, beans and soap to 1,000 households in impoverished areas of the country.

Please consider giving to the disaster relief fund, so that we can continue to support believers around the world in times of emergency.

Your gift of:

$7.80 could provide warm clothes and blankets to a Christian family in Nepal.

$18 could provide a food package containing mealie meal, corn soya blend and cooking oil to feed a Ugandan family of five for a month.

$36 could provide enough maize flour to feed a Kenyan family of seven for six weeks.

$54 could provide a single bed for a Christian in Brazil whose home has been destroyed by flooding.

Small Businesses

“You will eat the fruit of your labor; blessings and prosperity will be yours” – Psalm 128:2

Christians often struggle to find work in countries where they are a despised and persecuted minority. Any jobs they get are largely low income, low status tasks. Barnabas invests in hope by funding start-up costs for a range of small businesses that enable believers to become financially self-sufficient.

“This project has strengthened my faith in God’s plan for me. I have felt His presence in every step,” said “Dina”, an impoverished Christian widow in Egypt, who struggled to support her family following the death of her husband.

Barnabas helped Dina to set up a small grocery shop, enabling her to earn a living and meet the needs of her family. “It’s not just about selling groceries,” she added. “It’s about witnessing His grace in action.”

Dina is among hundreds of marginalized Egyptian Christian women (mostly widows) and young men whom Barnabas has helped to escape poverty by providing funding for them to start small businesses including sewing or upholstery enterprises, digital printing ventures, and in transport services.

In South-East Asia, Barnabas helps to fund a number of income-generating initiatives in two neighboring countries* where the minority Christian populations face hostility and harassment, particularly in rural areas.

We help impoverished believers start small mushroom, fish or pig farming ventures that provide families with an income and food security.

Training in sewing, hair and beauty, motorcycle maintenance or computer skills opens new opportunities for young people in these countries. This encourages them to remain in their villages rather than move away to seek work, thereby strengthening their church fellowships.

Your gift of:

$24 could buy a 44 lb. sack of rice to sell at a grocery store in Egypt.

$26 could buy 500 fish hatchlings for a fish farmer in a South-East Asian country.

$41 could buy 100 mushroom-growing bags for a mushroom farmer in a South-East Asian country.

$97 could buy nine rolls of upholstery fabric in Egypt.

Christian Schools for Christian Children

“All your children will be taught by the LORD, and great will be their peace.”

– Isaiah 54:13

“I love my teachers so much and, when I come to school, I feel I am coming to my second home.” These are the words of Musa, a student in a Barnabas-funded Christian school for Sudanese Christian refugees in Egypt.

The parents of the school’s 369 students fled persecution and conflict in Sudan. They cannot afford to pay ordinary school fees for their children and are grateful that, thanks to Barnabas Aid, their children have the opportunity to learn to read and write.

As well as providing a nurturing Christian environment for the children to learn in, the school also provides jobs for adult Sudanese Christian refugees: it employs 27 teachers and seven other school staff. This allows refugees to earn a living and pay their bills as they set up their new lives in Egypt.

In Christian-minority contexts, Christian students may endure persecution and discrimination for their faith from other students and staff. In some cases they are even pressured to convert to the majority religion.

Barnabas-funded schools enable young believers from needy and vulnerable families to learn in a caring, Christian environment. This not only strengthens them in their faith, but also empowers them to escape the cycle of poverty and destitution by gaining valuable skills and qualifications.

“I am thankful to God,” says 11-year-old Horab, a student at a Barnabas-funded school in Pakistan, who hopes to become a doctor. “I am happy it is a Christian school where I can get a proper Christian education.”

Your gift of:

$11 is a typical cost to support a Pakistani Christian child in school for a month.

$34 could pay the monthly salary of a Christian teacher in a Barnabas-supported Christian school in Pakistan.

$38 could pay the monthly salary of a Christian Sudanese refugee teacher in Cairo.

$62 could cover a year's schooling for one refugee Sudanese Christian child in Egypt.

Opportunity Africa

Helping Our Suffering Christian Family in Africa

“Nobody ever asked me what I can do ... except Barnabas Aid.” These words from Dalyop, a young man in Nigeria, demonstrate the importance of Barnabas Aid’s new Opportunity Africa initiative.

Dalyop lost both his parents to anti-Christian violence at a young age. “I had lost hope and didn’t know what to make of my life,” he said. “I have been jobless for years.” Now Dalyop is one of thousands in Nigeria studying digital content creation, a course that is funded by Barnabas.

The Church in Africa is growing. At the same time the challenges that face African Christians are also growing – including poverty, violence and terrorism, displacement, extreme weather and natural disasters.

With God’s help and yours, Barnabas Aid is partnering with African Christian communities to help them become more resilient, self-sufficient, and independent. We are calling this Opportunity Africa. The aim of Opportunity Africa is to transform communities in Africa through sustainability and human capacity development.

“We know that African Christians have the capacity, skills, determination, and resilience to turn their tragedies into opportunities, and lamentations into praises,” says Barnabas Aid’s Africa Coordinator.

As well as vocational training, we are giving practical support to farmers, including our piglet project, we are providing medical backpacks and training volunteers in how to use them, purchasing sewing and corn-grinding machines, funding schools for displaced Christian children, building homes – and this, God willing, is only the beginning.

Living Streams

Commit to a monthly gift through Barnabas Aid's Living Streams project to sustain and strengthen suffering Christians.

"There are many examples of pastors who are able to stay on and hold on in an utterly hostile environment because of the sponsorships," explained a Barnabas project partner in Indonesia.

Barnabas supports 40 pastors and church planters who are laboring to build and support the Lord's Church in Indonesia, despite poverty and threats from extremists (see p.10).

Support for pastors and evangelists is one of the ways Barnabas is helping Christians through our Living Streams program. Your monthly gift could be used to feed hungry believers, fund Christian schools for Christian children, or provide Bibles to brothers and sisters in need of spiritual encouragement.

We will also provide a twice-yearly newsletter for regular donors.

We invite you to join our mission of providing hope and aid to suffering Christians. Your pledge will help sustain, support and strengthen needy Christians living under pressure and persecution.

$6 per month* could provide a Bible to encourage and strengthen the faith of a Christian living under pressure and persecution.

$22 per month* could sponsor a child living in poverty so that they could attend a Christian school and grow in body, mind and spirit.

$24 per month* could provide a food parcel to sustain a hungry Christian family.

$36 per month* could support an evangelist or pastor sharing the Gospel with those who need it.

*Suggested amounts are based on typical costs, but you will receive twice-yearly newsletters if you can give any amount regularly to these needs.

Leaving a Blessing for Your Christian Family

“Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.” – Galatians 6:10

After you have taken care of your loved ones in your will, could you consider widening your care to those who belong to your extended family – that is, your Christian brothers and sisters worldwide?

Gifts left in wills (known as legacies) can help to meet the needs of suffering and persecuted Christians around the world, and can provide tax benefits for you.

Your generous gift can:

- feed Christians facing hunger and deprivation, disadvantaged for belonging to the family of God;
- help believers who have suffered violence for their faith;
- give shelter to displaced Christian families fleeing persecution in their homeland;
- support an evangelist or pastor facing daily danger in their ministry in regions where Christians are a persecuted minority;
- strengthen Christian brothers and sisters with Bibles in their own language;
- train young children up in their faith through Christian schooling.

Please remember your Christian family when you come to plan for your future.
